FROM THE DEACON

My name is Deacon Chiedozi Ononuju but I go by Deacon “Dozy.” I am from Anambra, Nigeria, but I grew up in Lagos, Nigeria. I am from the Igbo ethnic group. In the Igbo language, Chiedozi means “God has arranged things well.” My family name, Ononuju, means “Someone in the midst of plenty.” These names resonate with my vocation because God, in his providence, has arranged my life in a remarkable way and called me to share his plentiful blessings with others. I am very thankful to him for this.

I attended elementary school at Dominican Nursery and Primary School in Lagos. Upon graduation from Dominican, I attended Loyola Jesuit College—a coeducational boarding school in Abuja, Nigeria—for 7th through 12th grades. So, since 7th grade, I have been away from home for extended periods. I graduated from Loyola in 2010 and I came to the United States that same year to attend Georgetown Preparatory School—an all-boys Jesuit boarding school in Bethesda, Maryland. I attended Georgetown Prep as a “post-graduate” year in order to apply to U.S. colleges while assimilating to the U.S. educational system, and U.S. culture in general. In Fall 2011, I enrolled at Bucknell University in Lewisburg, Pennsylvania to study electrical engineering. After graduating with a B.S. in electrical engineering in 2015, I stayed at Bucknell for two extra years to obtain an M.S. in electrical engineering.

At certain periods, during my undergraduate studies at Bucknell, thoughts of priesthood would enter my heart and my mind, but I would try to push these thoughts away. I must note, however, that Bucknell was not the first time I had thought of the priesthood. In fact, I had considered it at Georgetown Prep and also at Loyola. I had even “played Mass” as a kid where I would pretend to be the priest and my younger sister would be an altar server. Nevertheless, in college, I felt that I had my life and future plans “all figured out.” Consequently, I attempted to avoid God’s call.

During my Master’s degree, by God’s grace, it became clearer that Jesus was indeed calling me to serve him as a priest. I came to realize that if this is indeed what the Lord is calling me to, it will be the best thing for me. So, I began to pray more earnestly to know God’s will. I also began going to spiritual direction regularly to get help in discernment.

I went to Quo Vadis Days in the summer of 2016. And it was at Quo Vadis that I accepted God’s call. Later that year, I applied to the Diocese and got accepted. After accepting me as a seminarian, Bishop Gainer sent me to study at Mount Saint Mary’s Seminary in Emmitsburg, Maryland where I enrolled in Fall 2017. I have utterly loved my time at the Mount and my experience as a seminarian for the Diocese. I was ordained a Deacon by Bishop Gainer on May 21, 2022, and I am immensely grateful for this grace. I have one more year of studies and formation at the Mount before, God-willing, I am ordained a priest next year. I am deeply grateful to God for giving me the grace to answer his call. I am excited to be at St. Joan of Arc Parish and I look forward to serving the people of this parish in various capacities.

Road to Kindness

God’s Way – “The Road to Kindness” is working this summer. In this bulletin, we wanted to discuss ways to spend time with your children, and also recognize special ways that camps for kids are bringing Kindness to the summer activities.

First, many families may decide to stay at home this summer due to high gas prices, etc. If you decide to stay home, create a family Olympics event. All the games, such as corn hole, wiffleball, bocce ball, etc. can be turned into a fun time and the winners get to pick the kindness activity they want to do as a family for their community!

Second, we heard from some families that they are taking a break from the heat and spending time with grandparents. This time can also be enjoyable by playing checkers or chess and again the winners get to select the kindness activity for the family to do!

Finally, similar to last year, there are numerous camps for kids that offer kindness adventures and activities. These kindness camps provide a supportive peer environment to empower and inspire kids to lead with kindness. They connect families and communities through family service events. They engage schools and caregivers with youth focused character development resources. These types of camps continue to gain popularity.

The main point is there are many ways we can spend time together as a family doing fun activities that ultimately lead to sharing our kindness and doing kind acts in our communities!

Enjoy the summer and let’s all follow God’s Way – “The Road to Kindness!”

Caelorum

We look forward to seeing everyone at Caelorum on Wednesday, August 6 at 7:00 pm at St. Joan of Arc Church. There will not be a July Caelorum. Join your Brothers and Sisters in Christ as we come together to adore, praise and worship our Lord and Savior. Feel the presence and never-failing love as he attends to your needs and strengthens and blesses you with his abundant Mercy. God Bless. Please join us! For more information, contact Lou Felice at (717) 215-4175.

With Much Gratitude...

We wish to thank the sponsor of the week for advertising in our parish bulletin:

COMPANIONS IN CARE

Summer is here. Let the renovations begin!

Top row: Windows being cut into the third floor.

Middle row: HVAC planners and electricians working on ducts and pulling wires.

Bottom row: Demolition of original dry-wall studs and installation of new design.

The 3rd floor project has begun in earnest. Crews are buzzing to meet the constraints of 12-week school recess. To recap, this summer's construction will focus on creating six new classrooms, a teacher's lounge, storage and mechanical space. It represents about half of the available square footage on the top floor with the future chapel having the walls, drop ceiling, doors, and windows installed, and plans for final finishes and fixtures to be installed next summer. All of the trades are being coordinated on a tight schedule so any delays may set back more than just the crew off schedule. Please keep the Centennial Project in your prayers to have the Holy Spirit guide the entire process to a successful completion. Here is our Campaign Prayer:

Our most gracious heavenly Father, as You bless us continually with the knowledge of Your abundant gifts, grant us especially with the gift of a grateful heart. Help us to respond sacrificially to the challenge before us, so that our Church family may move forward in its Ministry of worship, education, and service. Give us the faith, courage, and the desire to support this Centennial Project in our Church as we grow for tomorrow. In Jesus' Name. Amen.

There are still matching funds available for the Donor Match Program to support the 3rd floor renovations. Benevolent donors have agreed to match dollar for dollar your gift to the Centennial Project. We do have sufficient funds to cover the costs of renovations this summer, but we are still in great need of funding (~ $500,000 in new commitments) to complete the beautification of our school next year. Your gift or pledge will ensure we meet that goal. Thank you to all of our donors for your kind generosity in making this project possible.

You can view the positive impact of the school on the students and a virtual tour of the planned expansion at:

Please prayerfully consider contributing to this vital educational mission of St. Joan of Arc Parish:

2022 Diocesan Annual Campaign (DAC) Update:

The DAC Campaign runs from Feb 1, 2022 to January 31, 2023. It is a yearly assessment to support the charitable missions, religious education, spiritual development and the organizational infrastructure of the Diocese of Harrisburg. Our obligation remains the same this year at $281,000. To date, because of your generosity, our parish has raised $180,000 towards that goal. At this point in time, receipts are slightly ahead of last year ($149K vs. $140K). An important difference in last year's campaign, however, was that St. Joan received a generous bequest of $90,000 in August, which was a booster shot to meet our commitment. The yearly assessment is mandatory, so it would have come from St. Joan's operational budget had not that wonderful gift been bestowed. This year, there is still $100,000 yet to be raised. DAC mailers with personal prayer intention requests for the Bishop will be made available in the pews on Sunday July 7. Your gift/pledge funds dozens of vital social programs in the capital region. With your generosity, those programs will continue to meet the financial, spiritual, and educational needs of our local families.

CELEBRATING INDEPENDENCE DAY

The Parish office will be closed on Monday, July 4. We will reopen on Tuesday, July 5 at 8:00 am.

Have a blessed and safe Holiday!
