PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the Eucharistic Community of St. Joan of Arc Parish, by the grace of God and through our participation in His Word, the Church's sacraments, and prayer, seek our eternal salvation.

We live out the doctrines and traditions of our Faith in communion with the holy, catholic, and apostolic Church, established by Our Lord Jesus Christ.

With courage, we follow the example of our patron saint and invoke her intercession as we strive to know God, love God, and serve God which moves us to actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ in the midst of our every day life.

FROM THE Parochial Vicar

I hope you all had a very blessed and relaxing July 4th holiday weekend! Perhaps you had a cookout, watched some baseball, spent time with family and friends, or a Weaver family favorite, watched the Nathan's Hot Dog Eating Contest! Whatever you did, I hope that you enjoyed it. The reason that we celebrate, however, is to celebrate the great freedom. That word, "freedom," is one that is often misused or misunderstood in our society.

When we hear the word "freedom," we generally think "free to do whatever we want whenever we want to do it." This is not real freedom. In fact, this is what we call "license." Just as a driver's license gives you the freedom to drive, "license" means you can do whatever you want. Even though this sounds good, it is not always good because license can actually lead us to have less freedom. Think of that sin that you can't seem to shake. At some point, you freely chose to commit it and you have done so repeatedly. Now, you want to stop, but you can't. You have become so attached to that sin in such a way that you no longer have the freedom to stop it. This is what St. Paul means when he says that we have become "slaves to sin."

Instead, true freedom, as St. John Paul II said, "consists not in doing what we like, but in having the right to do what we ought." In other words, it is not doing whatever we want, but having the ability to pursue what is true. Freedom cannot be separated from the truth. To enjoy true freedom, we must conform our life to what is true, to the truths of the natural law and what God has revealed in Jesus Christ and his Church. This freedom allows us to choose to be holy, to choose to be saints. In doing so, we not only avoid sin and the attachment to evil, but we experience a real freedom and a real joy that the world cannot offer.

Father Josh

With Much Gratitude...

✠ MINISTRY NEWS

Respect Life

The Overturning of Roe v. Wade

“This is a historic day in the life of our country, one that stirs out thoughts, emotions and prayers. For nearly fifty years, America has enforced an unjust law that has permitted some to decide whether others can live or die; this policy has resulted in the deaths of tens of millions of preborn children, generations that were denied the right to even be born.

“America was founded on the truth that all men are created equal, with God-given rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. This truth was grievously denied by the U. S. Supreme Court’s Roe v. Wade ruling, which legalized and normalized the taking of innocent human life. We thank God today that the Court has now overturned this decision. We pray that our elected officials will now enact laws and policies that promote and protect the most vulnerable among us.”

-From the USCCB Statement on U. S. Supreme Court Ruling in Dobbs v. Jackson, June 24, 2022

Road to Kindness

As we think back to the last two summers that were challenging, we have to now consider, more than ever, all the Good that is in our lives! Being grateful is hard at times and that is why today’s message is so important! Showing our gratitude is one of the best activities that we can do and that we can teach our children. A wonderful exercise is to prepare a “Gratitude Journal!” Everyday, we can write down all the wonderful things in our life and the kindness we have shown to family, friends and those in our community. There are special Gratitude Journals that you can buy or you can just start with a few sheets of paper. You could give a Gratitude Journal as a gift to someone you are close to – it is a wonderful gift. To start your journal off, we felt that an article we have shared in the past by Ralph Marston on the “Vast Goodness” and Being Grateful fit perfectly into today’s message. It is amazing how when you reach out for inspiration, it comes to you right at that moment. Take time to really read and embrace these words!

Vast Goodness

“The time to be thankful for what you have, is while you still have it. If you wait until after it’s gone, what would have been gratitude instead becomes remorse.

Are there good things in your life right now, that you’ll desperately miss when you no longer have them? Now is the time to appreciate them, make good use of them, protect them from harm.

It’s natural to focus on what’s wrong, or what doesn’t work, out of a desire to make improvements. Yet the whole reason you’re able to improve whatever doesn’t work, is because of all the other things that do work.

Yes, problems command your attention, as well they should. But don’t let them blind you to the Vast Goodness that continues to support your life.

The most important time to nourish your body, is when you are ill. The most important time to be appreciative of your blessings, is when you’re faced with difficult problems. You are living proof that, for the most part, life works very well. You can make it work even better by building on the Goodness that’s already there.”

Experience the Vast Goodness in your life as you travel down God’s Way – “The Road to Kindness!” Have a wonderful week filled with Kindness!

THE CENTENNIAL PROJECT

3rd Floor Renovations-Drywall Installation Begins

Inside View
Outer Chapel Wall

View Hallway from Classroom

Hallway View of Classrooms

Inside view of ~20%
of Chapel

In order to keep the project on schedule, trades crews have to be carefully synchronized. This week we see the drywall crew up and running right behind the completed work of the plumbers and electricians. Classrooms are taking shape and the drywall installation in the hallways is indirectly giving shape to the immense great room which will be the future chapel. Green laser lights can be seen pointing in all directions, self-leveling, and making exacting plumb lines. It's exciting to watch.

Time is passing so quickly. We've made our way through the first two holidays of summer and are headed for the "dog" days of summer heat. The third, and the last of the summer holidays, Labor Day, is just eight short weeks away. The Liturgical calendar is in "ordinary" time-a time when the weeks are numbered and we get back to our busy lives with an emphasis on learning how to integrate Christ's teachings into our everyday routine. It is also time for a much-needed rest to recharge. Do not skip this important reconnection with your family. With the price of gas soaring and the price of everything else right on its heels, perhaps this year calls for creative day trips for your "stay"-cation. No matter where your plans take you, just be sure to map out family time. It really needs to be at the top of your to-do list.

Catholic schools play an important part in supporting the role of parents in the education and the spiritual development of their children. You are welcome to visit and to experience first-hand the love and dedication of our faculty and staff in our Summer Camp program. You needn't look further for an education that is academically accredited and that incorporates the spiritual wellbeing of the student into their daily interactions and activities.

There are still matching funds available (~$72,000) for the Donor Match Program to support the long- range 3rd floor renovations. Generous benefactors have agreed to match dollar for dollar your donation. New contributions are targeted for the final completion of the 3rd floor in Summer 2023. The sooner we meet our goal, the sooner we can lock in pricing in this nothing short of "hyperinflationary" economic environment. Please prayerfully consider a sacrificial gift to finish the 3rd floor renovations.

You can view the positive impact of the school on the students and a virtual tour of the planned expansion at:
