PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the Eucharistic Community of St. Joan of Arc Parish, by the grace of God and through our participation in His Word, the Church's sacraments, and prayer, seek our eternal salvation.

We live out the doctrines and traditions of our Faith in communion with the holy, catholic, and apostolic Church, established by Our Lord Jesus Christ.

With courage, we follow the example of our patron saint and invoke her intercession as we strive to know God, love God, and serve God which moves us to actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ in the midst of our every day life.

God's creation."

Pope Francis

FROM THE PASTOR

When I was in the seminary, professors would emphasize doing “primary reading.” This means that we go to the source. For example, you read Saint Augustine’s “Confessions,” Saint Thomas Aquinas’ “Summa” or the encyclicals of the Popes rather than just reading commentaries on them. People commenting on primary sources is considered “secondary sources.” So often, we just read commentaries on what the Church actually says and these commentaries are often filtered through an ideological lens. This is especially true of the Church’s teachings on respect for human life. Did you know that United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has made many statements about the various issues that demand a respect for human life? Sadly, very few people read them. If you go the USCCB’s website (USCCB.org), you will find the Bishop’s teaching on such topics as Abortion, Assisted Suicide, Euthanasia, Gun Violence, Marriage and Family, Healthcare, Racism, Human Trafficking, Immigration, Contraception, Capital Punishment and the Death Penalty, Pornography, War and Peace, The Environment, Bioethics, Love and Sexuality and many more! The media makes it seem that the only topic we care about is abortion. We do care about that greatly but we Catholics are not doing ourselves any good if we just take the word of others on what the Church teaches about life. Go to the source. You might be surprised at what you learn!

Father Al

This Weekend’s Collection: World Mission Sunday

Pope Francis reminds us that in Baptism we are called by the Lord to be his missionaries: “you shall be my witnesses” (Acts 1:8). Let us offer our prayers and generous financial support, through the Society for the Propagation of Faith to the Pope’s missions. Please note: There was an error in the envelope mailing, use the red-bordered envelope for today’s collection.

We continue to progress towards the conclusion of our 3rd floor initiative. The last planning phase of the renovations has already begun. As outlined in previous bulletins, we are still in need of your generous support to complete the project funding.

Autumn is flying by. In another week, we celebrate the lives and pray for “All the Saints” & “All the Souls.” At this time of year, maybe you have been contemplating the creation of a legacy for a loved one who is dear to you and has recently passed on, or perhaps there is a living “saint” in your life.

A naming opportunity is a special gift* that will be recognized for generations to come. A naming opportunity allows a benefactor to memorialize, or honor a special person in their lives, living or deceased, or alternatively, create a personalized inscription acknowledging the gift. As an example, in the photo below, a beautiful plaque is engraved for mounting on the wall of a classroom or another dedicated space. The chart above is a current list of the rooms or spaces still available. If you are interested in finding out more information about this program or other tax deductible giving opportunities, please contact Jerry Crawford at the Parish Office or jcrawford@stjoanhershey.org

Any gift may be designated in thanksgiving, in memory of, or in honor of a loved one (ie. In Honor of Jane Smith). A room may not be named directly after a person (ie. The Jane Smith Cafeteria).*

Thank you for making the St. Joan of Arc Education Center a reality. Many hands make light work!

ROSARY RALLY THANK YOU

Thank you to all who helped with the Annual Rosary Rally.

Kudos to Father Josh and David, a friend of the parish, for physically setting up for the event. Gratitude is extended to Father Al, Father Josh, Deacon Joe, the Cantors, Office Staff and so many others along with the participants and attendees. Through the help of the Graces received, may Our Lady’s Triumph bring peace to our nation and the world.
