FROM THE PASTOR

I have been thinking about parish social events for the Fall months. Save the Date for the following:

◆ Saturday, September 16 at 6 PM—TRIVIA NIGHT. Get a group of 3-6 people per team (kids are welcome!) and test your knowledge against other families from the parish. Great prizes for the winners (I don't know what these "great prizes" will be yet!)
- ◆ Friday, October 20 at 6 PM—BEEF AND BEER. A night to celebrate the successful end to our Centennial Project. Come together to enjoy good food and drink, tour the 3rd Floor renovations and have a good time. More details to follow.

◆ Thursday, November 23 at Noon. I have always wanted to have a Thanksgiving dinner here at the parish. All are invited but a special invitation goes out to those who don't have a family with whom to celebrate Thanksgiving. The parish will provide the turkey, stuffing and potatoes; everyone else can bring a dish of your own choosing. A Thanksgiving potluck sounds pretty good to me!
- ◆ Father Al's Open House Christmas party will be after the Saturday evening Mass on December 16. Let's get in the Christmas mood!

Father Al

Road to Kindness

Happy Summer! This week’s message is all about showing Gratitude and Always being KIND. First, let’s start with a few questions.

Do you start your day by saying thank you for all that you have in your life? By saying thank you to God? By saying thank you to your family and your friends? How important is it to be Kind and to show Kindness to those that are having challenges?

Here are a few ways to start the day:

1. Wake up as soon as you hear that alarm go off, jump out of bed and say, “Thank you God for another Day!”
2. Then Go Outside – sit for a quiet moment, take a breath of the fresh summer air, and listen to the sounds (are the birds singing? what do you hear?)
3. Then take out a piece of paper or get your Kindness Journal that we have recommended in past bulletins and write down three items for which you are grateful. Your family, your children, your church, being alive to share another day, for all the blessings that you have, etc.
4. Then, list out the 3 actions you need to accomplish to make it a productive day for you.
5. Plan ahead so that you will bring Kindness into your day, and you will impact someone’s life in a positive way. Let’s all remember that we are blessed and Always Being Kind is God’s Way!”
God bless you for your Kindness!
