

4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus rebuked him and said, "Quiet! Come out of him!"
The unclean spirit convulsed him and with a loud cry came out of him.

FROM THE PASTOR

This coming Friday the Church celebrates the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord. The world commemorates “Groundhog Day” but we Catholics remember the bringing of the baby Jesus by Mary and Joseph to the temple in Jerusalem to “present” him to the Lord. Taking place 40 days after Christmas, for many people throughout the world this is the real end of the Christmas Season. February 2nd is special to me because it was that day 29 years ago that I went into surgery at the Hershey Medical Center to remove a golf-ball-sized tumor from my brain. Originally diagnosed as a very malignant tumor, it turned out to be a benign tumor usually found in toddlers—and I was 30 years old at the time! I remember being put under anesthesia, not knowing what the future would be, but simply placing myself in God’s hands and trusting His will for my life. It was a singular moment of grace in my life. It is kind of interesting to think that Jesus was presented in the temple according to the law and yet he is the Lord of the temple, the giver of the Law. It reminds us of the reality of the Incarnation. God takes on our flesh and is like us in all things but sin. He takes on our human limitations, our getting sick, tired, angry, lonely, afraid. Fear—especially of dying, of the unknown—is part of the human condition and Jesus understands it all too well because he experienced it just as we do! But his “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” becomes “Into your hands I commend my spirit.” Those were the words I said before I went under the knife those 29 years ago. It brought me peace and acceptance of my human mortality. I need to remember that more often in my life today. To remember the words of Jesus in Saint Mark’s Gospel: “Fear is useless; what is needed is faith!”

Road to Kindness

Today, we want to talk about “Lighting the Way ahead.” Life can be very challenging at times. Let’s read the Daily Motivator by Ralph Marston as he discusses how to:

“Light the Way Ahead”

Even on the most challenging days, there's something to be thankful for. Find it, focus on it, and give yourself added energy to get through the challenges. Gratitude might feel weird while in the midst of trouble and difficulty.

Yet that gratitude will shine a positive, empowering light on the situation.

From a perspective that's overwhelmed with negativity, all you can see are the problems. Choose instead to find something for which to be thankful, and open your awareness to all the many good, positive resources available to you. The most valuable opportunities often appear within the most difficult situations. Gratitude helps you to see and understand those opportunities.

Somewhere, somehow, a positive aspect can be found. Always, something exists for which you can be genuinely thankful. The more challenging the situation, the more valuable it is to have something positive you can hold on to Identify what you can be thankful for, and light the way ahead.

Being Thankful and showing Gratitude can help you in any situation and that is God’s Way – The Road to Kindness!
